

Meet the All Saints School Board

INTRODUCTION

I was an associate board member many years ago when Fr. Ernie was pastor at St. Elizabeth Seton and Sandy Renehan was principal. I helped in the initial phase of getting our All Saints school up and operational with tree trimming, moving the lockers, setting up the library stacks, and helping out wherever needed. I have a fourth grader attending All Saints and my wife and I are overjoyed at the discipline in the classroom and the phenomenal teachers that work so diligently to assist our children's learning efforts.

WHY I'M ON THE BOARD

I believe in giving back to the community that does so much for my family. All Saints Catholic School is one of the linch-pins at the heart and soul of our family and community. The Catholic foundation my daughter has at her disposal will assist her to make a positive difference in this world that needs help in healing wounds and uniting people. GOD gives us our life to do with as we choose, it's how we live that life that shows GOD how appreciative we are.

WHEN I'M NOT AT ALL SAINTS YOU'LL FIND ME...

Helping people/ financial institutions build their financial net worth, assisting my mother in hospice care, driving my daughter to her events, visiting the St. Elizabeth Seton adoration chapel, enjoying my Vizsla puppy's antics in the back yard, long walks with my wife or working out at LA Fitness with my wife.
