If you would like to sign your child up for caroling, please contact Gretchen Muller at bandgmuller@comcast.net. Space is limited so please sign up early!

Parents will be responsible for their children's transportation to and from the retirement homes. Sign-up information should include the participating child's name, parent's name (with email and cell phone), child's grade and teacher. As a reminder, parents will be participating in this event with their children, and must have completed the Protecting God's Children program.
