

You are invited to an
ASCA-SHPP Mother Daughter Tea Party

Where: Drury Lane's Lucille Tea Room, Oakbrook Terrace
When: Saturday, November 12 3-5pm

Cost: $30 per person plus tax and gratuity (no children's rate)

Please place your reservation at <http://drurylane.com/dining/high-tea>

IMPORTANT: include All Saints or ASCA in the "Guest Notes" field for group seating.

Reservations accepted through Friday Nov 4th.

Drury Lane Address: 100 Drury Lane, Oakbrook Terrace

See Tea Party Q&A for more information.

ASCA-SHPP MOTHER DAUGHTER TEA PARTY Q&A

Q: Who can go?

A: Mothers and Daughters from the All Saints Catholic Academy Community (PK-8 grade)

Q: Can I get a discount for my child?

A: Sorry, no children's rate are available.

Q: What food can I expect at this high tea?

A: Each individual will receive one of each item on the menu which is posted online for you to view at <http://drurylane.com/dining/high-tea/>.

Q: Will alcohol be served?

A: One glass of champagne is included per reservation and they substitute sparkling lemonade for the children.

Q: What about allergy concerns?

A: You can place your concerns on the reservation. They can accommodate most allergies. Feel free to reach out to Lucille Restaurant at Drury Lane directly at 630-530-8300.

Q. Do I need to pay with my reservation?

A: No. Payment is due after the tea party as in any restaurant outing.

Q. Can I reserve a table with my friends?

A: Sorry, no seating charts are made in advance but of course you can sit anywhere you like. We suggest you coordinate arrivals if you wish to sit as a group.

Q. Why haven't we heard of this event before like other events at ASCA (Mother Son Event, Daddy Daughter Dance, etc)?

A: This is a brand new event which depending on participation will continue to grow and improve in the future with the support of SHPP.

Q. After tea what else can we do?

A: You can go watch a movie, go shopping or watch the Drury Lanes' show Crazy for You, anything you want. Spend a nice time together. Or just go happily home.

For additional information please contact monicarisdon@gmail.com